GAME-PLAN INTRODUCTION: A universal self-actuating people's catalyst-plan designed as a powerful self-empowering tool used to immobilize the breeding conditions of global mental health disorders and socioeconomic conflicts.

Hello,

My name is Janice Ainsley and I am one of a growing collective of informed people who shares life enhancing information with population networks, with the common idea of improving the natural sustainability of life on Earth.

Twenty years ago, who would have thought that we are all part of Corporate Human Resource Management organizations, whose waste products include millions of damaged people and vast amounts of non-returnable natural resources. With forecasts of worse to come and developing circumstances already changing our lives, the general meaning of sacrifice has already been upgraded to new levels of deception and population reduction agendas.

What NLP is and how it controls everyone's life.

Neuro Linguistic Programming (NLP) is the use of word-meanings, which describes how the language of our mind produces the qualities of our behavior.

NLP takes the viewpoint of looking at "how" the system works, not why.

NLP has been mystified over the years and somewhat complicated by long technical words that confuse even the trained spotters amongst us.

The most un-used official definition is that NLP is a powerful way to control and manipulate individuals and populations who support and rely on Ego-Belief Systems for security and sense of self. It is about world power!

NLP is about getting what is w you or others program to happen.

CATALYST OF CHANGE

As highly dependent stakeholders in the welfare of Earth's natural resources and life-forms, if our interests are ever to be based on a solid foundation of life-enhancing knowledge and healthy self-managed intentions, we all could use a harmless catalyst-of-change which is simple, comprehensive and universal to all people.

It could be that the most self-responsible and naturally appropriate catalyst to cause change towards sustainable universal existence is none other than a Global Census-of-Citizen-Intent, relating to how masses are being deceived and trained to think and act according to suggestive multi-media programs and cultural agendas being marketed and networked throughout all Global communities.

A CENSUS OF INTENT IS THE CHOPPING POINT OF TIME AND THE WAY TO A NEW EARTH, NEW WORLDS AND NEW LIFE!

WE WERE NOT BORN AS FOOLS, BUT WE HAVE BEEN USED AS SUCH!

PEOPLE !

ENTHUSIASM

A COMPREHENSIVE AND TOTALLY SUSTAINABLE MENTAL HEALTH AND SYSTEM REFORM CATALYST

Public Introduction,

'Enthusiasm' began as a simple conception on August 31, 1991 and eventually developed into what you see now. Finally, after many years time-testing and tremendous excitement, the public birthing of this extraordinary people-helping-people event has occurred.

Call it what you want, - A Magic Wonderland Adventure

- A Weapon of mass anti-destruction, or even

- A scary invasion from THE UNKNOWN,

but the real fact is that a universal way to use the real truth of how we have been programmed is now in your hands and not just the hands of corporate powers. A completely transparent way or cause an end to harmful mass-manipulating population control agendas.

The main aim of this letter is to attract people's attention to how we can all capitalize on a natural way of using universal truth to form a much healthier public bond with corporate control centers with a powerful strategic action-plan to stop corrupt social/economic and environmental devastation. The birthing of a natural universal system has begun in Australia and each one of us is being offered a very real opportunity to become part of the mid-wife platoon.

It's probably not really a surprise to most, that this event is occurring, as religions have been discussing its arrival since u-no-wen..... Please, treat yourself to a complimentary tour of this unique wonderland adventure and then decide if you are going to celebrate or sacrifice your connection to its.....But, before you decide to accept or deny this invitation,.....you are being urged to evaluate the benefits and risks of your final decision.

For every effect there is a cause, so when there is enough human intent and enthusiasm to create a better world for all life, then it will happen.

PROGRAM CODE: 'O-MEN'

The program represents a timeless system formula, re-formatted to a unique reality restructuring business-of-life portfolio designed to provide every World-citizen with a no-limit level playing field and a completely transparent game-of-life plan.

A REAL OPTION FOR PEOPLE TO BE SELF-RESPONSE-ABLE.

The information provided within 'ENTHUSIASM' is presented as an extraordinary social and economic journey to 'The Beginning' and 'The End', through the space of time, to the cause of all things

ENTHUSIASM'S RELATIONSHIP WITH METAPHYSICS

For the benefit of those who are not yet aware of the listed words, names and meanings, The Oxford English Reference Dictionary and the Internet has been used for the following descriptions of awareness contributions which form the solid foundation of this unique human-resource system-release-program.

Metaphysics: The branch of philosophy that deals with the first principles of things, including such concepts as being, knowing, substance, essence, cause, identity, time and space.

Enthusiasm: A strong interest or admiration, great eagerness, (Greek connection-Theos)

Mythical Tour-Guides:

Eos-Aurora: The Greek-Roman goddess of the dawn (or beginnings). The word Eos is related to the word Easter, in that they have the same symbolic meanings, such as rebirth, resurrection and newness.

Tithonus: A mortal who (before being transformed into an immortal cricket/grasshopper), produced two sons with Eos, one of whom became the King of Babylon.

Pandora: A mortal who released a 'box' of surprises into the World for the benefit of Mankind.

ENTHUSIASM-(As a public catalyst of universal change) A practical reality mind-release plan for people who are living within the control of Capitalism (or any other 'Man-made' master-system.) The plan shows how people can safely escape from being unnaturally harmed and controlled by Subjective Information Networks which use hazardous emotional-response programming required to manipulate and control human minds.

Some of the main benefits attached to this action-plan include such things as:

- a. A new peace and harmony reality system including social-economic reform and absolute citizen-empowered equality.
- b. Universal self-responsible mental and physical health reform.
- c. No conflict, no unnatural hardships, no class distinctions. excesses and definitely no criminal or warfare activities.
- d. No debt-creation and suffering.
- e. ACCEPTANCE, ENJOYMENT and ENTHUSIASM..

THE JOURNEY

INTROUCTION

The Enthusiasm Journey is a major part of a unique human welfare program which has arrived through a natural collective need to address and deal with corrupted social and economic disorders occurring throughout all Australian communities.

The program represents a strategic maneuver from Flight-Extraordinaire, the first phantom division of a new type of communities-owned and controlled 'flat-line' collective (Collective-Energies-Oz), which operates in accordance with public demand for conflict-free existence. ENTHUSIASM is aimed at arming citizens with self-empowering human resource knowledge for the sole purpose of producing non-conflict relationships and sustainable social and economic infrastructures.

Every member of Humanity is invited to be a part of this extraordinary adventure into the amazing world of practical magic and abundance, where individuals and communities can inspect the 'real workings' relating to system-controlled cause and effects programming, and see how to attract sustainable mental and physical freedom, including financial and environmental security.

To help you appreciate the value of this extraordinary evolutionary adventure, three identities from the ancient Greek world of practical magic have dedicated their knowledge and effort towards fulfilling their evolutionary linguistic mission to share natural wealth and unlimited abundance.

Introducing your personal tour-guidesTithonus, and his charming wife.....Eos and her assistant.....Pandora

Welcome to

AUSTRALIA'S DREAMTIME
ADVENTURE TO A SUSTAINABLE WORLD OF PRACTICAL MAGIC

To ensure a safe and fulfilling journey through occasional alien or hostile environments, the Warmich Total Quality Consumer Protection Service is equipping each passenger with its latest security and 'treasure-hunting' technology.

GENERAL TRAVEL-CHAT

Throughout all Australian communities, some of the most dreamed-about subjects include ones of doom and gloom, population explosion, environment abuse, miss-use of non-replaceable energy resources and the all-important disharmony within relationships.

Have you ever thought about how we might really be aliens, using a primary power-system designed to constantly seek and destroy. Or, could we be a natural versatile life-form having a collective bad dream and thinking that we are all slaves to an organization called CHAOS, (ie, Collective Hierarchies Associations Of Subjectivity), a dream-control group who have 'the job' to direct and maintain mass deception and defense formations.

Could it be that what we have been shown in the first few years of our lives, about how to respond to relationships and circumstances, has in fact trapped most of the World's people in a false and hazardous state of emotional slavery.

FEELINGS OF ENTRAPMENT

Even now that the danger has invaded our homes, work-places and recreation venues with toxic chemicals and disease of the mind and body, we are kept in the darkness of deception, not able to find natural peace, happiness and healthy enthusiasm,..... until now!

Who thinks they are able to use 'free-choice' with their ability to respond to the circumstances of life? We are told that we are responsible for our choices and have some sort of right to a personal opinion, false and dangerously conflicting as they can be. We are also told that we are endowed with a mind/brain or control-station functioning as a personal life-support centre similar to the way computers work, where programmed response-information remains constantly effective until new response programming is installed and accepted. Can you see how any individual or group could be legally accountable or responsible for their choice-driven actions when there is so much incriminating evidence showing that all human behaviour is being directed by external systematic emotional-response programming working through the polarized facilities of human minds?

DEFEATED OR FOOLISH IGNORANCE!

There are many people on Earth who dream about a better quality of life in a safe and healthy conflict-free environment. What do we mean when we say "NO" to conflict, war, avoidable suffering and corruption, then continue to produce and support more of it? Are we not the victims who have been tricked into endorsing and supporting corrupted World Powers? Without a unified people's plan-of-action to stop the rot and enough human resources to implement such a plan, can we, as a threatened life-form expect anything else apart from more controlled and more hazardous effects?

THE END OF THE TUNNEL

In the past most of us did not have easy access to actual human-behaviour cause and effects information. But now the real information relating to how masses are manipulated with false and deceptive negative emotional response programming has become widespread general knowledge, and yet we are still not able to stop destructive ways without a universal catalyst-of-change.

By now you may have realized that this very valuable and exciting adventure is to FREEDOM and must negotiate all active and non-active programmed fear-barriers. If you are not prepared to continue this journey to freedom, simply burn the words, depart from this journey and proceed through the illusionary limitations of the Ego-Belief System and attempt to forget that light is death to darkness, just as conflict and preventable suffering means death to health and happiness.

AROUSED DOWN-UNDER

- How do you feel about perception (personal reality) being a produced effect, fed from manipulating information networks?
- Can you explain any possible reason for the exploding numbers of Australians who are diagnosed with mental disorders?
- If you were delegated with the job to immobilize and control a Nation's human resources, would you not focus on using mind, water and food toxicities to create and treat (not fix) mental and physical disorders with toxic chemicals and victim management programs?
- Can you see how fear is willfully created to manipulate people's ability to choose and think?
- Do you think every Australian should have a clear unrestricted opportunity to receive the life-quality benefits discussed on this journey?

WALL-HANGINGS

- If you wanted to, could you describe what type of alternative governing reality-system would be best for Humanity to employ?
- Is there any true meaning to 'Fear of the unknown' until the 'unknown' is found?
- Does competition, Capitalism or any other man-made system create many more losers than winners?
- Do you think that media information distribution networks have invested interests in helping corporations capture and control large populations of consumer-minds?
- For all the gamblers on board; - it may be found that some working knowledge of the Enthusiasm Portfolio could provide extra security with risk-prevention strategies.
- Can you see any practical meaning or feel any emotional difference between:

LIVE ----- EVIL
and
LIVED ----- DEVIL
and
DOG-----GOD

Could they just be words in the mirror of life, or maybe just 'Spirit clues' created by past population-control designers?

THE POWER OF THOUGHTS

There is a common deception growing in the garden of life indicating that negative thoughts cannot cause harm. Global health authorities and governing bodies know that the quality of thinking, visualizing or dreaming has a major and probably total influence over the mental and physical health of all humans and therefore including the health of our global social and economic infrastructures.

It may not have attracted your attention yet, but if our childhood negative emotional-response training is permitted to be active throughout adult lives, then those lives have not been initiated to harmonious life-skills and are at extreme risk of experiencing periods of artificially induced ill-health and a high probability of premature death.

THE HIDDEN ORDER OF CHAOS

We are all living in an age of high-speed advanced technology, where most children are being taught about how to control others and seek and destroy programs. This is only one clear example of how population leaders manipulate people's minds into producing and supporting the avalanche of destruction and toxic pollution that we know so well.

There are many places on Earth where children are taught to kill and brutalize other humans before they are ten years old. In other places where electronic devices are available, the children have been deceived into seek and destroy training at home, at schools and where they play.

Is it not apparent that if the current wave of grown uninitiated children do not succeed with total social and environmental destruction, it seems certain that if practical preventative measures are not implemented, the children of today will easily complete the process.

WHEN THE DEVESTATION STOPS

For those who have ventured this far, some may feel overwhelmed by the sheer magnitude of what this adventure could mean to Humanity's possible options to avoid mutant control and probable extinction.

Behold! We have arrived at a place where the last-option ticket-giver is waiting for your hand.

A SICK JOKE! ARE HUMANS TOO SMART FOR THEIR OWN GOOD?
Have you ever wondered why most Australian schools do not teach how and why majorities are manipulated without their consent to harmful consequences?

How many unsuspecting citizens in every Australian community are suffering from preventable chronic to severe health symptoms, harmful thinking programs, unfulfilled lives and preventable premature death? Why would anyone possibly think that corporate-controlled agendas have no connection to these wasted lives?

Mind manipulation experts have long known that human behavior can be taught and bought. We know by our own experiences that Subjective Information Networks (commonly known as the system of SIN) working with multi-media modeling programs have shown us how to create millions of victims and profit from controlling their mental and physical circumstances. Not only have we been programmed on how to think and choose, we are programmed to use 'Belief' instead of 'fact'.

SAFE JOURNEY

Yes, this journey, apart from being timely appropriate, easily demonstrated and eternally rewarding, it is about arriving at a very real destination where there is a world of awareness and everlasting joy, with schools that teach universal truth and associated business-of-life sustainability.

MATRIX DONATION FROM 'THE KEY-MAKER

'A CENSUS-OF-INTENT'

Who is not prepared to commit to a life-enhancing un-corruptible census? Definitely not Governments, drug companies, weapon manufacturers, organized crime Heads or Australian community councils!

There are only two ways to avoid severe consequences of non-commitment and they are:- leaving the Planet and dying. Before long, each citizen will have completed their own informed census and re-committed intent-declaration. Even if we all voted for more of what we are trapped in now, we might be better off, because then we could own-up to our wicked ways and get rid of opposing conflicts, such as Governments, religious cults, human rights laws and do-gooders. In effect, we could all party and plunder until Earth was totally cleared of its most toxic and destructive life-form.

Any certainty for a conflict-free future is absolutely dependant on informed universal awareness and models of collective change that can be easily demonstrated to the rest of Earth's human populations.

..ELIXIR OF LIFE..

Awakening THE TRUE SELF using Natural Laws of Attraction
and
the following natural life prescription:

“With the unconditional truth of existence,
I have been awakened to the controlling powers of the ‘Ego-Belief System’ and have released myself from its destructive hypnotic control.”

HOW TO USE THIS POWERFUL ELIXIR OF LIFE

Procedure: Upon awakening each morning for a period of Not less than thirty-one days, mentally consume The Universal Prescription two or three times. If you miss a day and wish to gain freedom and a better life, then you must re-start the program.

WARNING ! Your system-controlled Ego-Belief-Self will not want you to consume this powerful elixir of life and will use various implanted programs to prevent you from claiming your freedom.

This complimentary Golden Aussie Program is now yours for free. You can safely use it to release yourself from the Ego-Belief System’s dangerous deceptive hypnotic powers. Unless you have a legitimate reason to remain an enslaved servant to corrupted emotional-response programming, then this extraordinary adventure to freedom and abundance is yours for the taking.

The effects of life are absolute products of:

INTENTION + PLAN + ACTION

14.

WAIT A MOMENT!

Would you not be wasting your time and energy by assessing any new information before verifying its validity with accountable knowledge?

Doesn't the real proof of an experience come from personal involvement or does it come from opinion and assumption?

Maybe you are already in the process of awakening to how and why people are manipulated with deception and false emotional-response training. Maybe you are already experiencing the freedom and benefits of living without conflict, or even more importantly, thinking that emotional stress is a natural part of life and negative consequences are unavoidable.

Providing that no appropriate new action to stop hazardous emotional programming from creating harm, there is no other option but to remain one of the many fantasy-enslaved servants controlled by personal fear-promoting demons working for a personalized system-employed executive warden in charge of your emotions and response-behaviour.

SYSTEM-VICTIMS / CORPORATE-SLAVES
WARDEN-MANIA / EGO-BELIEF-ROBOTS

Get used to It! World populations have to be culled or brought to sustainable order. Does anyone want to be sacrificed before their natural end-time? NOT LIKELY!

Have you and your family got a practical plan to stay 'safe'? Are controlling corporations you support providing any better options, other than more control? NOT LIKELY!

FACE THE FACTS!.....Earth is going to be a much better place with only one seventh of its current populations, if Earth's citizens fail to respond in a practical united manner, to how we are being led to 'slaughter', then so-be-it! At least, the minds consuming these words now have the best possible opportunity to:

BE A SURVIVOR AND LIVE!
OR
BE ABUSED AND LIFE-WASTED BY YOUR-WARDEN!

15.

THERE'S A SNAKE IN THE GRASS

Are not thoughts the fuel that fills each mind and from that fuel comes the quality of our world!

THE REAL ARMAGEDDON

The greatest war in the history of human existence has begun. It is a global war where every adult person is required to direct their intentions within their own minds to identify and immobilize system-implanted sub-conscious deception and false emotional-response programming.

When the universal process described on page 10 and document 2L is collectively complete there will be no more wars or conflict, as there will be no more need !

Your inner guide, sometimes called Ego, who is a system-employed prison-warden in charge of your mental welfare will automatically say; “Don't do it, you won't be able to get to freedom because my corporate instructions are to keep you blinded from escaping.”

Because it's the quality of your life that is on the chopping-block, you need to give the target your best shot with a committed do or die attitude.

Unlike the dead and the non-returnable dying souls, we are being granted our very-last option to get things together and be true to each other,.....true to the environment and true to all future now's.

CORPORATE SLAVERY

There are a variety of standard tools and programs used to control people and maintain mass blindness to controlling agendas. Are you a servant to a hazardous belief system based on deception, or are you experiencing the benefits of universal vision and emotional empowerment?

The items listed are just a few of the common tools used by governing bodies to achieve the goals of deceptive manipulating agendas.

BRIEF VICTIM-CONTROL TOOL-LIST

- All forms of belief, including ‘OPINION’
 - All forms of emotional fear programs
 - Should do’s and don’ts (Dictatorships)
 - Deceptive marketing programs
 - Cynicism, skepticism and assumption
 - Negative emotional-response training
- Harmful mind-altering addictive substances and toxic suggestive or hypnotic information.

NO WHERE TO HIDE, JUST A TICKET TO RIDE

You could be thinking that negative emotional-response training is not a dangerous implanted controlling power. Could it be that most of ‘modern’ humanity has been taught this way or are they deliberately evil and not able to live happily together in an abundantly exciting world without conflict? Whichever way it is looked at, most human pursuits relate to questing for power and security.

Instead of being possessed by the false limitations of emotional slavery and governing health deceptions, you now have a black and white option to invoke some practical magic by taking a big bite of fruit from..... THE GARDEN OF OBJECTIVES.

Would it not be fantastic to live close to a universal library of abundance, and if so, would you seek access to that library regarding your own life?

17.

THE UNIVERSAL LIBRARY

Imagine such a library does exist and all you need is the location and access requirements. Imagine that you do find your way into this unique library of practical magic. What information would you seek first?

FICTION OR NOT

Do plants use belief? Do fish use belief? Do animals use belief, or do they all exist according to specific natural design? Do you already know that modern-man has been directed into supporting a hazardous false reality value-system called 'Belief'? We humans have shown that we can live according to most environmental conditions including the mental/social environments of governing authorities. Does this mean that if we really did want to exist happily and harmoniously, it could only occur by using a reality value-system based on universal knowledge and non-competitive intent.

Is this not so?

There may be some passengers who still think that negative emotional-response programming is not a major danger to their existence and that the rest of us are not victim-slaves of the Ego-Belief System's manipulating powers. Especially for those individuals, it is with your conviction that the information contained within this tour-package is not true or worthy of use. But more to the point, you must remain blinded and unable to experience the freedom of knowledge without the subjective limits of opinion or fear.

WARNING!

YOU ARE ENTERING THE WORLD
OF FREEDOM AND ABUNDANCE.
TURN BACK AT OWN RISK.

18.

CONSUMER COMMENT

“The Enthusiasm Portfolio has provided me with very useful knowledge about how to easily stop being manipulated by potentially harmful business agendas. My mental and physical health has improved significantly since completing my census commitment and affirmation program. My self-perception of a confused emotionally manipulated social victim has changed to a prosperous and happy non-victim, just by activating a basic system-release-program. I am extremely grateful and humbled by the portfolio’s powerful natural approach to harmful controlled unnatural circumstances, whatever they might include.

David Seymour, Henleys Hill, Cairns, Australia. 31.07.1991

JOURNEY’S END

We have arrived at our destination. Have a good look around and think about whether you have any real need or reason to return to the hazardous ways of experiencing life as a servant to the Ego-Belief System. While you are here, you may like to sample a few magic love-potions to enhance your appreciation of this stimulating environment.

For what it is worth, it was the ancient Greeks who programmed this particular journey and it was our leading physicists who have shown us the bare essence and intent of life as an infinite energy-source which appears to have no centre because it is everywhere, portrayed by everything that is existent and non-existent. This energy does have a basic language formation designed as a self-regulating electro-magnetic regenerating system driven by two polarized hearts-of-intent, working in alternate co-ordination within an expanding perimeter of super-natural creation. But think again,.....do you want to stay here or go back?

Our last duty as your journey guides, is to ask how each of you feel about being trapped and used by an often brutal slave-warden who exists in a world of deceit and conflict,..... and whether you want to release your inherited free-choice and move your intent into the World of happiness and freedom from conflict.

Pandora, Eos and myself wish that you act wisely on what we all really know and not what we people are programmed to believe.

CEO MIND-BANK OF HUMANITY

The Ground-Zero Mind-Banking System

THREE LIFE-ENHANCING ACTION POLICIES:-

1. C.E.O. MIND-BANK OF HUMANITY.....

2. The Ground-Zero Global-Mind Banking System.

3. Neuro Linguistic Programming (NLP)

To the average Jo Blow or Jill Smith, these three valuable things probably mean less than Jack Schitt. But, as our old and out of date systems collapse around us, the value of these three things will mean much more to Humanity than ever thought possible.

THE CEO MIND-BANK is a self-managing collective self which doesn't rely on credit or debt creation.

THE G-Z GLOBAL BANKING SYSTEM is a natural universal system of individual self-management .

N.L.P. A scientific language system used by result-driven intent.

The following word descriptions may be of benefit for the 'un-initiated'.

Neuro: The concept that all behaviour is physiological ie, has its origins in neurological processes such as sight, hearing, smell, taste and touch. Simple examples of links between trained emotional-response programming and physical changes include butterflies in the stomach when we feel nervous or going red with embarrassment, even when the situation may be artificially created.

Linguistic: (Language) To make sense of information and communicate with others, we use different forms of language to transfer meaning and negotiate results.

Programming: Patterns of how we organize ideas and actions. Once a pattern is learned, the brain will continue to use it until some different pattern is learned.

20.

GETTING THE MOST FROM EMOTIONAL CONDITIONS

BEGINNING WITH :- OPINION and FEELING

Personal reality----our perception of life, the psychology and metaphysics of our human conditions - is formed solely from opinion. We perceive and act on what we believe, not what we know as real or universal truth.

We mostly inherit our opinions and feelings from others, or construct them from common role-modeled demonstrations such as cultural, religious and organized crime. They identify us as predictable by forming and defining how we falsely see the circumstances of the real world. Every opinion is different and conflicting in essence, but universally linked by the value-system we all know as 'Belief'.

With a bit of practice you can eliminate the majority of all anguish produced from opinion. You'll gradually dismiss the remainder and free yourself from the opinions you have acquired, as well as those you might think are your own creation. This will liberate you from the negative emotion and hazardous anguish it offers. Serenity flows from universal knowledge. When you process circumstances with universal knowledge things become morally ethical, clearly accountable and socially responsible, so that wherever you go there will be continual harmony, adventure and opportunity.

For life's circumstances to generate negative emotion, they have to contradict your opinion. If circumstances don't contradict one of your opinions, your reaction is neutral. When circumstances enhance your opinions, they generate positive emotion for you.

The centre of all anguish lies in the issue of opinion and contradiction. Once you 'get it', and see how it affects your life, your well-being and the lives of others, you can take responsible action and free yourself forever. If you want a powerful, happy existence, get a grip on the issue of contradiction - and you will be eternally free!

PERSONAL MIND IMPRESSION
"My mind is now programmed to accept contradictions as natural and I have no need to react to them in an un-empowered way.”

CONTRADICTION AND EXPECTANCY

There are multiple benefits when you can see how the contradictions of life affect you. You can eliminate some of the negative effects immediately. You can also design your life to avoid most of them. And you can adopt practical tools that allow you to happily accept those contradictions you can't avoid.

By doing these actions, you return to your truest natural state, serene, happy, and entertained by the wonder and grace of this unique gift of consciousness we call life.

WHAT WE ARE TOLD

- We have to embrace infinity inside a mortal experience.
- We have to 'believe' in a supreme power we can't see.
- We have to learn to love in a dimension where there is so much hatred.
- We have to develop self-worth while people control us.
- We have to see beauty where there is distortion.
- We have to be non-corrupt in a corrupted world.

Transcendence is nothing more than accepting the contradictions of life without resistance, but embracing these contradictions is not what we are taught. We are taught to resist.

As soon as you agree to stop resisting, everything becomes more comfortable and enjoyable. All of life's circumstances are neutral. Life has no particular quality, positive or negative, other than the labels we give it - What is, is! Never forget that it's always the Belief System's intentions that are responsible for the creation and maintenance of the programs which keeps people controlled.

PERSONAL MIND IMPRESSION

“The circumstances of life have no particular quality. They are neutral. Its only HOW and WHY I to respond to them, that allows or denies happiness and prosperity.”

22.

EMOTION AND DESIRE

When ideas come together to form an opinion, and when that opinion is seen by you to be pleasing, the personality backs that opinion by investing it with emotion.

Emotion is the tool the personality uses to grant credibility and value to opinions. It's how the personality feels worthwhile and gets what it wants. It can wield emotion like a sledge-hammer, manipulating others to its needs and desires.

How does this system work? We start with an idea; we back it with reasoning to confirm the idea to ourselves. Then we lace it with emotion, investing ourselves in it. Then we go through emotional power-plays, doing whatever it takes, in an attempt to get what we want. When circumstances call our bluff, we are devastated.

The thing you desire - fame, success, money, opportunity, romance, etc, - will usually come to you in part, through the actions of others. It's your fellow humans who help carry your desires from the nebulous metaphysics of possibility to your immediate reality, where you get to feast upon the produce of your dreams.

Build your own road into the future. Take fifteen minutes of each day to visualize, as though granted, the condition or circumstance you want. Create a mental setting, see yourself with the object of your desire. Become a part of it, let it become a part of you. Then go and do something that moves you towards your dreams - something powerful and positive.

PERSONAL MIND IMPRESSION

“I use emotion, not as a self-indulgent tool to attract attention or promote myself. I act powerfully and concisely and create energy for others”.

FEAR-----THE EDGE OF THE WORLD

It's the death of things that scares us. Not just the physical death, but the termination of familiar things - the end of a relationship, a job, a habit or addiction. Sometimes it's a rhythm that is about to change, or your location, or a feeling of certainty you've clung to.

It's change we resist. Yet change is nature's way of keeping you alive and fresh. We live in a rapidly developing world. If you are not changing, life is leaving you behind. Things will get tougher, not easier.

Once you can accept change and endings, and not see them as personal affronts, most of your fear will dissipate. By attempting to hang on to circumstances and conditions whose energy is spent, your well-being and energy is being depleted.

Fear of change, fear of the unknown is only an emotional program. You don't have to know what will happen in the future to feel safe. But you can use programs-of-change that can improve your life and the lives of others.

PERSONAL MIND IMPRESSION

“All fear is nothing more than Ego's expectancy of an upcoming contradiction. It is the most dangerous emotional response. I have replaced it with objective awareness of developing PERSONAL POWER.”

WHEN IN DOUBT.....STOP!

REPLACING CONFUSION WITH UNIVERSAL VISION

Confusion occurs as a systematic mind-game side-effect used throughout most western communities, which clouds what one knows or doesn't know. It allows for indecisive action, poor reasoning and instability, usually manifesting as erratic behaviour and irresponsible choices.

Confusion comes, first and foremost, from ignorance and lack of intent to seek the clarity of knowledge. Confusion is often used to avoid the emotional 'fear' of its associated truth.

In helping others resolve their confusion, never ask the individual what they think, always ask how they feel about their issues. Then ask them what they want. Help them discover whether they really want what it is they think they want.

Then get them to look at whether their want is reasonable. Most individuals are professional dreamers who in fact, only need dreaming. They don't want the responsibility or the action required to materialize their dreams. The down-side of confusion includes system-victim creations, widespread health and safety hazards and costly relationship conflicts. The up-side includes a realistic way of avoiding facts, unwanted issues and attached emotional fears.

PERSONAL MIND- IMPRESSION

“ Confusion is just plain ignorance. It is one of Ego's systematic ways of controlling its victim-host. When I use clear lateral vision of the real facts there is no confusion or objective-truth denial.”

REMOVING FRUSTRATION

Frustration comes from expectancy, the emotional outcropping of which is desire. Most frustration stems from slotting hopes and plans into preselected timeframes which you consider necessary to support your intentions.

When it comes to relying on people we usually try to slot individuals into patterns that suit us, - a futile exercise in self destruction.

The main source of frustration for many people is the experience of not getting what they want. One solution to that is not want whatever it is you think you want. If you can't manage that, at least want less things. The more things you have to have, the more vulnerable you become. If you are mature and emotionally educated, you'll need nothing from anyone - and what little you do need you can provide for yourself.

Remember, most of the things you think you need are Ego-designed to bolster your image and your perception of security. You'll waste a lot of energy satisfying Ego, the warden of your emotional bondage. As soon as it's got what it wants it ignores all your efforts and promptly nails another list of demands on your forehead.

Ego, your personal custodian of how you experience and respond to the circumstances of life, will always strive to enforce existing programmed response effects. Any alternative action would involve taking control of how you feel by adding quality-of-life empowerment programs which improve how you respond to circumstances.

PERSONAL MIND IMPRESSION

“Frustration comes from the victim-addiction of being a slave to Ego’s timing and delivery of it’s desires. I now happily accept what I can’t change, and work on what I can.”

SPIRITUAL AWARENESS (SA) and SAFEST OPTIONS

Who would ever want SA ? Surely, if it was good for Humanity wouldn't we all be using it by now? What has it achieved, apart from a greater distance from 'mass suffering'? Is there any evidence to show that SA can stop wars, crime or environmental destruction? What motive or intention would anyone have to possess it, or be possessed by it?

Would World powers let us have SA if it could disrupt their programs?

Hardened corporate 'Business-Heads' who implement mass-programs and profit from people-control systems do not own human resources, but they do train us to be ignorant, gullible and virtually blind to our ability to exist with natural universal vision.

The hazardous hypnotic clutches of the 'Ego-Belief Capitalistic War-Machine' are still empowered and controlling how the World's life-forms exist. Corporations are not showing any interest in SA, or producing any effective quality-of-life change-programs for their customers.

Physics says that the supreme 'Spirit' represents the absolute Universe and workings. And the relative 'Awareness' represents its own absolute self-awareness and constant intent. How does that help our conflicts?

A demonstrated community model of Collective Life-Awareness and Self-responsibility is probably our best and safest remaining option to negotiate any chance of achieving a more humane life-support system.

For those who are silenced or are not able to effectively represent themselves and the diminishing numbers who are, the opportunity to provide a powerful contribution to celebrating the resurrection of the universal Mother System has finally arrived.

MENTAL FREEDOM

At the level that most people relate to the notion of freedom, it means the freedom to express ourselves however they wish; to choose work or career, friends, politics, religion or where to live. Yet there is another way to understand freedom. At its most vital level, it means the freedom to be, to be the beautiful, conscious person you are. It is to be inwardly free, not restricted or bound by any sense of personal limitation, not subject to negative emotional reactivity. You always feel relaxed, at peace, and open to life at each and every moment.

As you begin to master the art of being free in this way, your life becomes a more harmonious, deeply satisfying flow. Out of your relaxed state of contentment in the present, you do what you feel called to do, what you love to do, or simply, whatever needs to be done. Authentic action, or doing, flows out naturally of being. As Lao Tzu said, in the Tao Te Ching: The way to do is to be.

As a result of what you do, you will have certain results, the fruits of your actions, whether in your relationships, work, health, recreation, money situation, or whatever. You will be able to enjoy these results fully because you are not depending upon them for your inner peace and well-being. Because you know how to be, you already are at peace within. The outer gifts in life are like a bonus, icing on the cake.

So, how do you get to this state of inner freedom, the freedom simply to be? The quickest and simplest path I know of, and the subject of ENTHUSIASM, is to undergo the shift in perception that leads directly to inner freedom.

What is that shift? Essentially, it is seeing the universal truth, that you are not your story. You are not any story. You are not your psychological and emotional history, nor are you your self image. You are not your cultural, ethnic, national, social, or religious story.

All your stories, memories, experiences, have shaped your personality but they are still only your stories. They may have been real once, but are definitely not real now. They are an illusory world existing between your ears, in the form of fleeting thoughts, beliefs, pictures, and ideas of self, with corresponding feelings and emotions in your body.

When conflict or suffering arises, or when your buttons get pushed, it is because a person or an event, real or imagined, contradicts your view or expectation, your story, about the way things should be, or ought to be. The conflict is experienced as a disturbing feeling or emotion, whether it be anxiety, fear, or something else, in your body.

However, the upsetting feelings and emotions only exist because of the stories that fuel them, which keeps them alive. When you are not holding onto any story in your mind, but are simply very aware and relaxed in the present, your emotional state is always one of ease, harmony, and flow. This is a very important point to understand if you are at all interested in finding true inner peace.

What can be said to be real right now is the fact that you are alive, present, and reading ENTHUSIASM. What is real now is that you exist. You are conscious of existing, or being alive. In fact, your true nature, the one thing that is always present, whether you are asleep or awake, whether you are aware of it or not, is consciousness itself. 28.

EMOTIONAL HEALING---2nd DOSE

People often begin the spiritual life as an escape from the miseries of their worldly life. They may seek to be free from negative emotional responses such as anger, fear, frustration and resentment while desiring the more natural pleasant emotions such as happiness, passion and love. This is the way we begin, but it is not the way we can end. The ending, which is surrender, is the recognition that no escape is possible or necessary. This means to fully embrace whatever appears in consciousness, rather than ignoring any of it.

The usual strategies for achieving happiness involve either repressing the negative emotions in hope that they will be pushed from sight, or expressing them in hope that they will be released. Unfortunately, neither strategy reflects the real truth of one's inherent self, which is an unmoving purity of being that exists deeper than any emotion and remains unaffected by any emotion. When you do not define yourself by emotional states, then the emotions are free to arise because they don't mean anything about who you are. You know directly that all states are simply passing through the pure space that is your nature.

To directly experience any emotion is to neither deny it or wallow in it,...and this means that there can be no story about it. There can be no story line about the person it is happening to, why it is happening to, why it is happening or suggested cause. True innocence is the capacity to directly experience what is here right now.

Openness, the willingness to see and feel confident, even if what appears seems absolutely suspicious. True innocence is not naiveté, nor is it delusion.

However, the willingness to be innocent does involve vulnerability. This willingness to be vulnerable is what the term 'spiritual warrior' really means.

In the willingness to stop the suffering, which means > the willingness to stop the story about the anguish > it can be experienced just as it is. What was previously thought of as unbearable can be experienced with an open mind, a mind that has dropped all definitions and is no longer closed around some idea about the experience.

The truth is that when you really experience any negative emotion, with no story, it disappears. And when you truly experience any positive emotion, it grows. But, because there is not much in our culture that confirms this astounding revelation, we spend our lives chasing positive emotions and running from negative emotions.

If you think you are fully experiencing a negative emotion and it remains intense, then recognize that there is still some story being told about it. It may be how big it is, how you will never be able to get rid of it, how it will always come back, how dangerous it is to experience it. Whatever your story of the moment may be, the possibilities of postponing direct experience are endless.

For instance, when you are irritated, the usual tendency is to do something to get rid of the irritation or place blame on yourself or on someone or something else as the cause of the irritation. Then the story lines around irritation begin to develop. It is actually possible to do nothing with irritation: not to try to push it out of awareness or get rid of it, but to directly experience it. In the moment that irritation arises, it is possible to simply be completely and freely irritated - without expressing it or repressing it.

Direct experiencing often reveals a deeper emotion. Irritation, for instance, may be just a ripple on the surface. Deeper than irritation, there may actually be rage or fear. Again, the goal is neither to get rid of the emotion nor to analyze it, but to directly experience it. If rage or fear is revealed to be beneath the irritation, then let your awareness go deeper: let yourself be absolutely angry or fearful, without acting out or repressing.

Fear is often the biggest challenge because it is what most people habitually attempt to keep away. Of course, as they try to keep it away, it grows even larger and hovers even closer.

You can actually be open to fear. You can experience being afraid without any need to say you are afraid, and without following any thought of being afraid. You can just simply experience fear itself.

The fear in question is not physiologically appropriate fear. The response to physical danger - fight or flight - is natural and appropriate to the human organism. It is hardwired into the body for survival. It is appropriate, for instance, to get out of the way of an approaching avalanche.

The fears that need to be directly met, all the way through, are the psychological fears, the fears that keep our energy and attention bound unnecessarily in protection and defense, such as the fear of emotional anguish.

When a psychological fear is met rather than resisted or run from, it often reveals deeper layers of emotion. If you are willing to experience these emotional layers all the way through, you will finally approach what appears to be a deep abyss. This abyss is what the mind perceives as nothingness, emptiness. This is an important moment, because the willingness to be absolutely nothing, to be nobody, is the willingness to be free. All of those other emotional states are layers of defense against this experience of nothingness - the death of who you think you are. Once the defenses are down, once the door is open, then this nothingness that has been feared can be met fully. This meeting reveals the secret gem of truth that has been hidden in the core of your own heart all along. The diamond discovered is you.

Fear, anger, grief, and despair exist only when linked to a story. This is an amazing, simple, yet profound discovery! Check it out for yourself. You can actually recognize that what you are running away from does not, in truth, finally exist, and what you are running toward is already there.

In Western spiritual subculture, people are fairly open to experiencing their emotions because it can create a sense of freedom, sometimes becoming a cover for the fear of experiencing no emotion whatsoever. Defining yourself as an emotional being is perhaps a step deeper than defining yourself as a purely mental being, but it is not all the way home.

What you avoid in defining yourself as an emotional being is emotionless-ness, nothingness and emptiness. Once you have experienced pure emptiness, you know directly, that who you are cannot be defined by any mental or emotional state, and this knowledge is pure freedom.

From the heart of pure life - your invitation has been waiting - not for you to get rid of any emotion, not to dramatize or glorify any emotion, but to discover what every emotion is calling for. This is an invitation to uncover your natural authentic passionate-for-life_ self,..... before who you think you are dies at the hands of a brutal system executive who is engrossed only in it's own pleasures at the expense of your physical and mental welfare.

WHAT HAVE WE BEEN SUPPORTING

Into the maelstrom: Perhaps this is what Arguelles meant about the Galactic Synchronization that's going to hit us when the Mayan Calendar goes dead in 2012. Exponential expansion of consciousness. Things flying at us way too fast for us to handle.

Like functioning in your sleep. Simultaneous events going on. You're in more than one place at once. Pastpresentfuture all happening at the same time. Jumbled images careening in multiple directions. Air traffic control needed on your own thoughts.

Diary of 9/11 running. Events that changed the world. How to present it? Put it on a CD, sell on internet, make money? No time, recorder's running and the fuse is lit; people are waiting for this information. Vision of man in north tower. Wears glasses, eyes wide, tearing at his shirt. He didn't survive. But he called on phone, saw people in cockpit as plane screamed towards impact. Horrible dream we all have. What's it like in those last few moments? Tiny silhouettes holding hands, falling. Would they find them in the pyroclastic dust? That's the past.

What did it mean? Sorry. We can't tell you what happened. It's classified. National security, you know.

Future. Bush has issued orders. Or maybe it was Jonah Kohn. Summary executions ordered for suburbs. Looting out of control. Post-disaster rules have changed. ATM machines don't work. People dragged off to death camps. Win a free trip to Camp Ashcroft! Solders everywhere, wearing masks, speaking foreign languages. Don Stacy (I've never met him) and I are driving like crazy on a two-lane road through swamp. Loudspeakers saying something. I think I saw this in Terminator movie. We have a document that says something important. As if it mattered at this point. Helicopters overhead sweep their floodlights in our eyes.

Present. My sheets are covered in sweat, I am thrashing about. In the darkness, I see the green light of my computer. Get up and write this? Sleep impossible. I have a verbal transcript of what 9/11 has done to the world playing in my head. It's an excuse to kill everyone. It's all just a dream, a nightmare. But I am awake. And then I realize. That's the problem.

Exponential expansion of consciousness. Coming soon to a planet near you. Tangents. Competing directions of thought. Which way to go? What is the safest? What is the most important? Are they the same? Should you forget your loved ones and go for the money? That's what schools, magazines and the TV tell us. Forget your children. Where's the beer? Where's the Prozac?

Anyone for Claritin?

33.

Tangents. Present.

Your relatives. The ones you can't convince about what's actually going on. They are sitting rigidly on the edge of their sofa, watching black-and-white military channel about how the British won the Battle of Bulge. I tell them curtly, viciously. Switch to Al-Jazeera channel. Watch U.S. soldiers sexually torturing children in front of naked Iraqi mothers, weeping through the bars. My relatives adjust their collars, and disdainfully retort: "John, how could you be so inappropriately uncouth?" I see their eyes turn to kaleidoscopes.

Tangents. Future.

The chip is implanted in your arm. You can pay your phone bill with a wave. Only you can't talk to anybody they can't hear. Worst, you tell a secret to a friend. The friend tells Mother Homeland Security. They come and take your children. Your children are convinced you are wrong. You see them wearing little olive uniforms, practicing identifying the enemy by the color of their skin, by what they wear. Smiling Tom Ridge tells of new Boy Scout merit badge: shooting prostitutes on street corners. Patriotic music in hip hop format blares.

Tangents. Past.

Follow the money as far back as you can. Meyer Amscheld Bauer. When Ferdinand and Isabella threw our cousins out of Spain, they went to England. Fiat currency started as a little bat and grew into a dragon that devoured the whole world. Every U.S. president who was assassinated spoke first about a government by the people printing their own money.

The spiffy skyscraper skylines everybody's so proud of - can you say Kuala Lumpur? - are actually spiritual tumors on human society, dragging everyone toward destruction with their glittering illusions. Every person in every war died to improve the profit margin in some banker's ledger. You don't have enough money to pay your bills this month. Don't worry. New program coming in U.S. - turn in a terrorist for cash. America as the New Salem, and the witches have traces of C-4 explosive on their hands, or so the military says as it sentences them to death by a 2-1 vote.

Humans have made the world their toilet bowl and are now caught in the whirlpool flow. Look! You can see the little people waving as they get sucked into the maw. Ah, the Coriolis force. Sometimes once you get things started it's not so easy to stop them. Dick Cheney needs to be on TV doing Tidy Bowl commercials. Flush the little people away and we'll have a peaceful planet, it's that simple. Only don't ask us how we did it.

DYING WITH FEAR

America is the home of the free and the land of the brave. You saw it so clearly at Abu Ghraib prison, when terrified American soldiers didn't care whether the people they tortured were innocent. They were just following orders. The New America, just following orders, no matter whom it kills. The world is watching. And waiting for an opportunity to appropriately respond to this despotic capitalist insanity. Something to ponder, as America destroys itself. At this point, the world will help us. Destroy ourselves, that is. It will be a public service.

Tangent Present.

It's a good life. People love you. Your contentment is dependant on not paying attention to what's going on. So you turn the channel. Mmmm, NASCAR. Listen to the engines roar. Turn up the volume. So you can't hear the screams of Palestinian children with bullets in their bodies. Or of American women who have flaming pustules in their bellies, put there by their brave soldier husbands with radioactive semen who shot all those foreign women from a distance so they didn't have to see their faces.

Tangent Future.- Take a deep breath. Suck that barium into your lungs. You know, barium, the stuff that floats down from the sky that the government put there for it's over-the-horizon radar program and to manipulate the weather. Put your faith in the Lord, the preacher rails. Inside the confessional, you make your ablutions, ask forgiveness. Through the latticed grate, the face of Donald Rumsfeld becomes visible. Worried about the future? Relax. It's only a dream. But why are you telling me you are awake?

When the powers that be ran out of rival societies to conquer and exploit and indigenious innocents to enslave, they devised an ingenious plan to perpetuate their demonic, moneymaking war machine - they invented fictional characters to pursue and annihilate, and recruited improvised souls to act out these roles. !!!

YOUR OWN CENSUS DECLARATION!

Congratulations, you have automatically completed your census of intent within a sub-conscious dimension of reality creation. You also have newer awareness of love, self-responsibility, self respect and consequences of treating the self and each other as precious brothers or sisters.

GUIDE SUGGESTION: Before your census commitment statement actually becomes a firmly empowered sub-conscious program, double check that you are fully aware of what consequences you have requested to be sent directly to you..

Ask yourself: "Have I taken possession of my Ego-Belief life-control center or am I still a slave to its emotional demands?"

YOUR OWN ETERNAL GOLD-MIND

What NLP is and how valuable it is to everyone.

Neuro Linguistic Programming (NLP) is the use of word-meanings, which describes how the language of our mind produces the qualities of our behavior.

NLP takes the viewpoint of looking at "how" the system works, not why.

The most un-used official definition is that NLP is a powerful way to control and manipulate individuals and populations who support and rely on Ego-Belief Systems for security and sense of self. It is about world power!

In practical terms, NLP is about continuous success for its consumers.

Can anyone do it?

If you understand anything about computers, you already understand something about how NLP works!

Computers are about man-machine interface. NLP is about mind-body interface. The entire process is very similar! Maybe it's time to learn about your own personal computeryour mind!

NLP cannot be dismissed as just another hustle. Its theoretical underpinnings represent an ambitious attempt to codify and synthesize the insights of linguistics, body language, and the study of communication systems. • NLP is the main method of controlling the thoughts and actions of whole populations.

During your own DIY NLP adventure you can learn how to:

EXPERIENCE A WONDERFUL HAPPY LIFE

- Master language & communication
- Always get agreement.
- Get the information you want, when you want it.
- Elegantly disagree with others, without offending them.
- Uncover hidden agendas.
- Get your point across without resistance.

- Get your listener curious and interested.
- Use metaphors and stories with a purpose.

37.

- Gain total control of your life
- Eliminating negative emotions.
- Make the right decisions.
- Get to know what you really want.
- Get motivated and stay motivated.
- Create the kind of future you really want.
- Understand your own internal time machine and how it creates your future..
- Eliminate limiting beliefs and decisions.
- Learn how to visualize your future so it's more exciting.

NLP is out of the 'corporate-control box-of-tricks'. Humanity's time to get used to how it is already creating everyone's life has arrived.

The Subconscious Mind, in accordance with stored and referenced ongoing thoughts feelings, emotions, beliefs, prejudices, expectations and other learned and programmed data originating within the Ego of rational Conscious Sphere of Mind activity during the current life experience, re-processes the data before outputting the data to be displayed on the 'screen' of the Conscious Mind, which people then call their 'experience', 'sense of being',--- - their 'life'.

Accepting the universal truth or absolute facts of human reality may seem a little distasteful, but our programmed Ego-Belief cultures have become a critical global issue which Humanity has no live way or valid reason to deny or avoid any longer.

Be assured that no person, community or greater population is ever confronted by a situation or challenge that cannot be negotiated.

ENTHUSIASM IS NATURE'S POWER FOR YOU TO USE!

IT'S EASY! IT'S ETERNALLY FREE! IT WORKS FOR ALL!

DON'T SHARE ENTHUSIASM BECAUSE IT WORKS LIKE MAGIC,

SHARE IT BECAUSE IT IS ABUNDANT, ETERNAL AND FUN!

DO UNTO OTHERS AS YOU WOULD HAVE THEM DO UNTO YOU.
